

WHILE DELIRIOUS
SHOOTS SON-IN-LAW

John Lamareaux, of Ettrick, Severely Wounds Sleeping Man.

HILL CAMP DELEGATES

Representatives of Petersburg
Veterans Chosen Last Night.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., May 25.—John Lamareaux, who, in about sixty-four years old, and resides near the village of Ettrick, in Chesterfield county, shot and seriously wounded his son-in-law, Alvin Archer, between 12 and 1 o'clock last night, the old man being at the time in an apparently crazed condition, resulting from continued ill health. Archer and wife were spending the night at Mr. Lamareaux's house, and late in the night Mrs. Archer was awakened by her father, who entered her room with a double-barreled shotgun in his hands. Before she could arouse her husband, the delirious Lamareaux fired at the sleeping man, the bullet striking taking effect in Archer's arm and chest. The old man made only one attempt to shoot, and was soon quieted. Several hours passed before medical aid could be secured, and it was not until the full extent of the wounded man's injuries cannot be determined until to-morrow, as it is not yet known whether or not any shot penetrated his chest. Archer is about twenty-three years old, and is the mail-carrier between the Petersburg post-office and Ettrick.

Hill Camp Elects Delegates.
A. P. Hill Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, at a meeting last night, elected the following delegates to the Grand Camp, to be held in Richmond during the Confederate Reunion: James P. Banks, commander of the Virginia Division; Robert A. Martin, Jr., division adjutant; Samuel D. Rogers, division inspector; T. P. Heath, past commander; Rev. E. W. Barnwell, commander of the camp; Rev. Dr. J. S. Foster, Dr. W. C. Powell, Dr. Frank R. Talley, P. H. Drewry, W. P. Atkinson, Hill Beasley, James C. Hoy, Thomas E. Hoy, Robert Gilliam, Jr., Robert D. Atkinson, James E. Cuthbert, Freeman W. Jones and T. E. Atkins. Captain A. R. Hobbs, of Prince George county, was unanimously elected a member of the camp.

Both the A. P. Hill Camp of Veterans and the camp of Sons will attend the unweaving in Richmond on May 30th and June 2d.

Prepare for Unweaving.
A committee from the Survivors' Association of the Forty-eighth Pennsylvania Regiment, which participated in the battles around Petersburg during the Civil War, will reach the city to-morrow morning. The committee comes to make arrangements for the unweaving of a monument near Fort Mifflin, in Prince George county, June 20th.

The Pennsylvania veterans will be quartered at the Stratford. The Governor of their State and 400 veterans will attend the unweaving.

A book on the "Analytics of Church Government," written by Rev. Robert W. Barnwell, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in this city, is now being printed by the Franklin Press Company, of Petersburg, and will soon be published.

Rev. Dr. Evans
COMINC JUNE 23

Will Not Preach at St. James Church Next Sunday.

The announcement in an afternoon paper yesterday to the effect that Rev. William E. Evans, D. D., former rector of Monumental Church, would be in Richmond on May 26th, and would preach here the following Sunday is erroneous.

Dr. Evans, who is now the rector of the Church of the Advent, Birmingham, Ala., expects to come to Virginia to deliver the ordination sermon at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, at Alexandria, Va., on Friday, June 21st. He has consented to come on to Richmond and will preach at the Church of the Advent on the fourth Sunday in June, June 23d, when his many friends and admirers throughout the city will no doubt take the opportunity of hearing him.

Dr. Evans has made a remarkable impression in his new field of work and has been selected as a delegate to the Episcopal Triennial Convention, which meets in this city in October, and as an addressee at the convention. He has been the chairman of the Alabama delegation to the convention.

The Birmingham Age-Herald has the following with regard to Dr. Evans' work:

"It was a high compliment the Episcopal Diocesan Council paid the Rev. Dr. W. E. Evans, rector of the Church of the Advent, when it elected him a deputy to the general convention," said a gentleman who is not

I took a good, long look through the place yesterday, and in addition to sweeping out, cleaning the showcases and front windows, checking the freight, delivering goods, attending to office duties, helping write letters and getting up the ads, they want me to make myself familiar with the stock, so I can help out during a rush and sell goods. The new toys are coming in now, and, say, they're great. Now-ads you don't have to look on the inside of a man's coat collar for the maker's name to know if it fits. The coat itself will proclaim that half a block away.

The suits we are showing have the style and elegance which put a man in good company, if he wants it. It puts the evidence all on his side. It isn't enough to be all right in these hustling days; you've got to look all right as well, and our new summer togs do just that thing for you. Grays are still "it," but you'll also want to see some of the handsome new plaids. Come in and take a squirt at our expense.

With "WILLIE."

connected with the Episcopal communion.

"The general convention is the national organization of the church, and meets only once in three years. As only four clerical delegates, or deputies, as they are called, are sent from a diocese, the rectors who are chosen to represent the diocese are not next general convention meets in Richmond in October of this year. Dr. Evans has been connected with the diocese only a few months; yet, notwithstanding that fact, he was elected on the first ballot, and goes to the convention as chairman of the Alabama delegation, which is made up of eight deputies—four lay, in addition to the clergy."

Sam Richardson Took Employer's Money to Pay Installment Man.

Samuel Richardson (colored), employed by Mr. W. T. Hawks, butcher and grocer, of No. 918 West Cary Street, tried to furnish his house on the installment plan at $2-a-week payment, when he received only $5-a-week salary. He was married just about a month ago, and, of course, he had to live and support his wife. It seemed there was but one recourse left them, for the $2-a-week payment had to be made, and Sam decided a plan that he thought would work. It was but a pittance of the law, however, and when Sam had made collections for his employer and put the fifty-five dollars in his own pocket instead of his master's drawer, the leakage was soon discovered.

Sam collected some money from Mrs. Phil Schloss, which was not returned to Mr. Hawks. The latter sent in his bill, which Mrs. Schloss declared had been paid. They had a talk over the matter, and then Sam was confronted. The artful dodger denied that he had received any payment from Mrs. Schloss, and then Sergeant McMahon, of the detective force, was called in. The shrewd detective had a private chat with Sam, who made a clean breast of the matter, and then accompanied Sergeant McMahon to the Station, leaving his bride of a month disconsolate and lonely.

Richardson had furnished his house with about $150 or $175 worth of furniture. It is not known yet how many collections for his employer were not turned in.

BRESNAHAN SUSPENDED BY MGR. MCGRAW.

NEW YORK, May 25.—There has been a clash between Manager McGraw and Catcher Bresnahan of the Giants, which has resulted in Bresnahan being suspended for a week without pay.

Just what the cause of the trouble was McGraw and Bresnahan refused to state, but it is thought possible that it was owing to McGraw "calling" his catcher for poor work on the first Chicago game during a controversy in the dressing-room of the Giants. Bresnahan claimed that his throw to Devlin gave Chicago two runs and won the game for the Cubs was a good throw, and that Devlin should have put out his man. There was considerable argument over the question, and McGraw and Devlin got very warm over it.

OHIO REPUBLICANS WANT PEOPLE TO NAME MAN

AKRON, O., May 25.—Resolved, That the Republican State Central Committee should, at the earliest possible moment, provide some method by which the Republicans of Ohio can demonstrate to the rest of the country whom they favor for President.

The concluding paragraph of resolutions adopted by the Summit County Republican Executive Committee, which met last afternoon, was a little opposition to the adoption of the resolution.

Senator Dick was not present, he having left for Chicago last evening. The policy of President Roosevelt was praised, and William H. Taft was declared to be the best representative of Roosevelt policies and entitled to still higher honors.

There will be no trouble in any event, whether the verdict be acquittal or punishment. The young man and woman involved in the trouble were widely known in the county and popular with all "frie and Thedore" and everybody speaks of them, were known to everybody.

A young woman who may be placed on the witness stand told me this afternoon that the two young people were not warm friends, and that they had not spoken to each other for some time prior to the afternoon he took her on that drive. The fact the young Estes was engaged to marry the nineteen-year-old daughter of Hon. Brand Massie, of this county, is not generally known. Miss Massie is now a student at the Randolph-Macon College for Women, in Lynchburg. While there may be a general disposition to take sides in the deplorable affair which resulted in the death of one and the blighting of the lives of so many good people, it is also true that there is a large body of people in Nelson who do not express an opinion as to the merits of the case.

There is only regret—very sore regret—that young Estes should have met such an untimely end, and that a good man as Judge Loving should have become involved in such serious trouble.

History of the Tragedy.
The tragedy was enacted April 21st, and followed a buggy ride. Young Theodore Estes having taken Miss Elizabeth Loving driving the evening previous. While on the road Miss Loving is said to have complained of feeling badly, and when young Estes took from his pocket a bottle and said it was whiskey, the lady partook of the contents.

Returning to the home of E. L. Kidd, where Miss Estes was visiting, Miss Loving was quite ill, and a physician was summoned, young Estes going after the doctor. Later it is said that Miss Loving declared she had been drugged by Estes. After this she went for, and she had an interview with him. Whatever she may have told her father is known only to them. At any rate, on Monday, April 21st, Judge Loving hitched his buggy, took a shotgun, and drove to the home of Estes. The young man was not there. On being told that Estes was at Oak Ridge attending to some business for his firm, Judge Loving turned his horse in that direction, and proceeded to that point. He inquired if young Estes had been seen there, and on being told he was superintending the unloading of fertilizers, Judge Loving went to the station, approached the car in which Estes was at work, and presenting his shotgun, remarked:

"So you were out driving with ladies again last evening?" and before Estes could say a word—before he was given a chance to say anything—Judge Loving pulled the trigger of his gun and the charge landed in the side of the head and neck. Once again the aim of the man with the gun was tested, and the second shot nearly severed the head from the body. Estes fell, uttering the sentence, "Help me, boys," addressing the remarks to two negro men employed by him.

Following the shooting Judge Loving went to a magistrate and gave himself up, and was taken before the bail commissioner of Amherst county, between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

SHOOTS TO SCARE;
GOES TO GRAND JURY

J. M. Woolford Fired at D. U.
Pitt and Police Justice Sends Him On.

BIG ASPHALTING PLANT

Real Estate Agents Succeed in Landing Extensive Enterprise for Norfolk.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., May 25.—J. M. Woolford, charged with feloniously shooting at D. U. Pitt yesterday morning in an altercation on Roanoke Dock, was given a preliminary hearing before Police Justice Simmons this morning, and was sent on to the Corporation Court for trial. He was bailed in the sum of $250, with W. J. Shepherd as surety.

Pitt stated that Woolford met him on the dock, and after they had some words, he slapped Woolford in the face. Woolford, stepped back, drew his pistol and fired. The bullet went wild and penetrated a water pipe eleven feet from the ground.

Woolford denied the charge of attempting to shoot Pitt, but stated that he fired the pistol to scare him.

One of the largest asphaltting plants in the country is to locate in Norfolk through the efforts of Messrs. Bellamy, Hough and Hardy, an enterprising real estate firm of the city. The owners of the plant are not yet known, but the real estate men say they are under contract to come here.

The plant will be located near the Norfolk and Western Railway.

Great Interest
IN LOVING TRIAL
(Continued from First Page.)

them, many of whom are unable to incur such expense. Their attendance will not be paid until after they have testified. Change of venue will be opposed on the additional ground that it will be necessary in the prosecution of the case that the jury be taken over the road traversed by young Theodore Estes and Miss Loving on the evening before he was killed.

This view would not be possible were the jury taken to a distant county. It is believed, however, that counsel for the defense expect the motion for a change of venue to be granted by Judge Barksdale, Hon. R. Walton Moore, of counsel for the defense, arrived to-day, and went at once to the home of Judge Loving, four or five miles from Lovington. It was expected that Aubrey E. Strode and John M. Lee, associated with him for the defense, would join him at Judge Loving's this evening.

Daniel Harmon, of the prosecution, will come down from Charlottesville to-morrow.

Ryan to Attend Trial.
Thomas F. Ryan, a warm friend of Judge Loving, arrived in his special car this morning and went to his beautiful home at Oak Ridge, five miles from Lovington. Mr. Ryan will remain until after the trial.

It has from the first manifested the keenest interest in the case, and one of the first telegrams received by the Judge was from Mr. Ryan, expressing his sympathy and offering to go on his bond in any amount. John Swanson, of Danville, brother of Governor Swanson, arrived to-day.

It would not be proper to state there is no feeling in the county growing out of the homicide. There is much feeling, according to several persons talked with to-day, but there is no excitement of a kind likely to produce trouble.

Trouble Not Feared.
There will be no trouble in any event, whether the verdict be acquittal or punishment. The young man and woman involved in the trouble were widely known in the county and popular with all "frie and Thedore" and everybody speaks of them, were known to everybody.

A young woman who may be placed on the witness stand told me this afternoon that the two young people were not warm friends, and that they had not spoken to each other for some time prior to the afternoon he took her on that drive. The fact the young Estes was engaged to marry the nineteen-year-old daughter of Hon. Brand Massie, of this county, is not generally known. Miss Massie is now a student at the Randolph-Macon College for Women, in Lynchburg. While there may be a general disposition to take sides in the deplorable affair which resulted in the death of one and the blighting of the lives of so many good people, it is also true that there is a large body of people in Nelson who do not express an opinion as to the merits of the case.

There is only regret—very sore regret—that young Estes should have met such an untimely end, and that a good man as Judge Loving should have become involved in such serious trouble.

History of the Tragedy.
The tragedy was enacted April 21st, and followed a buggy ride. Young Theodore Estes having taken Miss Elizabeth Loving driving the evening previous. While on the road Miss Loving is said to have complained of feeling badly, and when young Estes took from his pocket a bottle and said it was whiskey, the lady partook of the contents.

Returning to the home of E. L. Kidd, where Miss Estes was visiting, Miss Loving was quite ill, and a physician was summoned, young Estes going after the doctor. Later it is said that Miss Loving declared she had been drugged by Estes. After this she went for, and she had an interview with him. Whatever she may have told her father is known only to them. At any rate, on Monday, April 21st, Judge Loving hitched his buggy, took a shotgun, and drove to the home of Estes. The young man was not there. On being told that Estes was at Oak Ridge attending to some business for his firm, Judge Loving turned his horse in that direction, and proceeded to that point. He inquired if young Estes had been seen there, and on being told he was superintending the unloading of fertilizers, Judge Loving went to the station, approached the car in which Estes was at work, and presenting his shotgun, remarked:

"So you were out driving with ladies again last evening?" and before Estes could say a word—before he was given a chance to say anything—Judge Loving pulled the trigger of his gun and the charge landed in the side of the head and neck. Once again the aim of the man with the gun was tested, and the second shot nearly severed the head from the body. Estes fell, uttering the sentence, "Help me, boys," addressing the remarks to two negro men employed by him.

Following the shooting Judge Loving went to a magistrate and gave himself up, and was taken before the bail commissioner of Amherst county, between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of that drive. The fact the young Estes was engaged to marry the nineteen-year-old daughter of Hon. Brand Massie, of this county, is not generally known. Miss Massie is now a student at the Randolph-Macon College for Women, in Lynchburg. While there may be a general disposition to take sides in the deplorable affair which resulted in the death of one and the blighting of the lives of so many good people, it is also true that there is a large body of people in Nelson who do not express an opinion as to the merits of the case.

There is only regret—very sore regret—that young Estes should have met such an untimely end, and that a good man as Judge Loving should have become involved in such serious trouble.

History of the Tragedy.
The tragedy was enacted April 21st, and followed a buggy ride. Young Theodore Estes having taken Miss Elizabeth Loving driving the evening previous. While on the road Miss Loving is said to have complained of feeling badly, and when young Estes took from his pocket a bottle and said it was whiskey, the lady partook of the contents.

Returning to the home of E. L. Kidd, where Miss Estes was visiting, Miss Loving was quite ill, and a physician was summoned, young Estes going after the doctor. Later it is said that Miss Loving declared she had been drugged by Estes. After this she went for, and she had an interview with him. Whatever she may have told her father is known only to them. At any rate, on Monday, April 21st, Judge Loving hitched his buggy, took a shotgun, and drove to the home of Estes. The young man was not there. On being told that Estes was at Oak Ridge attending to some business for his firm, Judge Loving turned his horse in that direction, and proceeded to that point. He inquired if young Estes had been seen there, and on being told he was superintending the unloading of fertilizers, Judge Loving went to the station, approached the car in which Estes was at work, and presenting his shotgun, remarked:

"So you were out driving with ladies again last evening?" and before Estes could say a word—before he was given a chance to say anything—Judge Loving pulled the trigger of his gun and the charge landed in the side of the head and neck. Once again the aim of the man with the gun was tested, and the second shot nearly severed the head from the body. Estes fell, uttering the sentence, "Help me, boys," addressing the remarks to two negro men employed by him.

Following the shooting Judge Loving went to a magistrate and gave himself up, and was taken before the bail commissioner of Amherst county, between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

TO MANY AGENTS
SPOIL THE BROTH

Have you ever seen the "for sale" signboards of two, three, four and more real estate agents on once place?

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of

Another Special Reduction Sale of Trimmed Hats
at Crighton's
Commencing
To-Morrow, Monday

These Hats are not a lot of shop-worn or undesirable Hats bought up cheap, but most of them are fresh and new; trimmed in our own workrooms.

Trimmed Hats that sold for $4.48, $4.98 and $5.48, black, white and all colors, reduced to..... $3.50

Trimmed Hats that sold for $5.98, $6.48, $6.98 and $7.48, some beauties in this lot, including Trimmed Leghorns, Milans and Chaps; also, hand-made goods, reduced to..... $5.00

Trimmed Hats that sold for $2.48 and $2.98, great bargains in this lot, reduced to..... $2.50

Shirtwaist Hats, big lot to pick from, will make a nice Exposition Hat; these sold for $1.98, $2.48 and $2.98, reduced to..... $1.50

Untrimmed Shapes, including the new sailor shapes, burnt, black, white and all colors of Milan, French, Chip, Neapolitan, etc., sold for $1.48, $1.75 and $1.98, reduced to..... 98c

The above prices are not exaggerated values, but our special former prices.

M. Crighton, 113 East
Broad Street

TO MANY AGENTS
SPOIL THE BROTH

Have you ever seen the "for sale" signboards of two, three, four and more real estate agents on once place?

The probability is that the case will of

between himself and the accused man.

It is almost certain that a jury for the trial cannot be obtained in Nelson county, for there is probably not a man, woman or child in the whole county who has not formed and expressed an opinion on the case. It would be folly and a waste of time to try to find a jury in that county, and so it is probable that no objection will be raised by either side in the fight to a change of venue.

The probability is that the case will of between